Meeting Summary – 3/20/2018

Attendees:
The Ad Hoc Committee convened in March to discuss housing solutions in Denton County. The committee discussed differences in supportive housing and affordable housing solutions. The group facilitator walked the group through examples of successful programs around the United States. The majority of the conversation focused on funding solutions and how the example programs could fit into the Denton County community. The group talked about the effects housing has on a community level and what already exist in the community.

The group facilitator walked the group through example housing solutions and discussed the pros of each example program. The group concluded that the “best-practice” for housing solutions is a public/private partnership. The group discussed what that partnership could look like in Denton County.

The group discussed funding opportunities and ones that will best fit the community. Members discuss the pros and cons of funding opportunities from inside and outside of the county. The members decided it would be best to pursue all types of funding, but mentioned the appeal of finding funding within the county. It may motivate potential funders more because it directly affects their community. This led to a conversation about how the group could appeal to certain funders and how housing truly affects all areas of the community. For example, housing affects the school systems and more. Members discussed using data to prove that housing solutions will help the community at large.

The members discussed the necessary stakeholders that should be in this conversation about housing solutions within the county. Members posed the question of supportive housing versus affordable housing. Overall the group felt that they needed more information about both models to make a more informed and educated decision. Members discussed that they would be open to either model at this point.

Members discussed if there is already a program in the works, or if this group is starting from square one. The workgroup came to the conclusion that this committee is starting from square one, but there is a project between DHA and a contractor for affordable housing units. There was discussion surrounding the Denton Housing Authority model and if it could be applicable within this group.

Members Present: Stephen Coffee (Chair), Danielle Shaw, Katherine Gonzales, Keith Henderson, David Mays, Jordan McCarty,

Guests: Katie Chapman, Hope Nordon, Daisy Martinez, Myles Wood, Wendy Noble, Damita Harris

Workgroup kicked off with a team building exercise where members participated in a trivia game about the Vulnerability Index – Service Prioritization Assessment Tool (VI-SPDAT). Questions were crafted to assist Coordinated Entry (CE) Assessors to use the tool more effectively. The group reviewed the updated HMIS report that includes the total number of people experiencing homelessness, the total number of people with a housing need, and the total number people housed since the implementation of CE in Denton County.

Dani Shaw gave the group an update of the Built for Zero initiative and how we will improve the utilization of our homelessness data to reduce the number of actively homeless households in Denton County. The group also discussed improving the quality of data that is imputed into the HMIS. The group reviewed a HUD Data Quality Report and made a goal to reach a 80% accuracy rate. The Local HMIS Administrator will support agencies improve data by running Data Quality Reports and coaching through edits.

Agencies were provided lists of client assessments that need updating. Agencies will attempt to contact individuals and households for re-assessment. If agencies are unable to contact households they will be identified as inactive. Once assessments have been updated we will have the number of active and inactive households experiencing homelessness, and baseline data to start measuring systems performance that will inform the community data dashboard. UWDC interns will be placed where agencies lack capacity.

The topic of re-assessments lead the group to discuss concerns of the VI-SPDAT assessment. Agencies have expressed concerns of the assessment unable to capture enough information to determine the vulnerability of chronically homeless households. UWDC Homeless Initiatives team is in contact with OrgCode, the creator of the VI-SPDAT, to schedule a phone call to discuss how the tool can be utilized more effectively to reflect the vulnerability of people experiencing homelessness.

March 23, 2018

The workgroup met shortly to discuss the re-organization of the DCHLT workgroups. The Data Workgroup will return to it’s initial purpose of data aggregation, analysis and visualization. Housing Workgroup and Case Conferencing Committee will combine to focus on Housing Focused Best Practices and Training as well as case conferencing to prioritize families to receive available housing assistance.

Additionally the workgroup voted to approve the Housing Priority List Inactive Policy and submit to Texas Homeless Network for final approval. This policy aims to increase the accuracy of Denton County’s Housing Priority List. Currently the list includes all households that have completed a Coordinated Entry Assessment. In some cases households may solve their own homelessness or have left the Denton County service area. Therefore, to ensure that capacity is spent as efficiently as possible, households that have not been active in the past 30-90 days will be identified as inactive on the Housing Priority List. This should reduce the amount of time case managers spend contacting households when assistance becomes available. Households may return as active anytime they return to receive homeless or housing services. Households will remain on the Inactive list for one year before being pulled from the Housing Priority List.

February 26, 2018

Attendees: Alyssa Mostaffa, Christy Daniel, Courtney Cross, Daisy Martinez, Dani Shaw, Daphne Adams, Katherine Gonzales, Katie Chapman, LeMaya Woods, Taylor Cameron, Tyheshia Scott, Terry Widmer (Chair).

The workgroup convened in February to discuss next steps in the landlord outreach initiative known as Doors for Denton County (DFDC). The group discussed the program design and policies for DFDC. Group members expressed their concerns and gave feedback; the goal is to have the program design approved in March. The workgroup reviewed Built for Zero, updates for the Denton County Barriers Fund and updates to Doors for Denton County. The meeting started off with an overview of Built for Zero, a program that helps communities address homelessness in their communities using data and other strategies. Then the workgroup members reviewed updates about the Denton County Barriers Fund. There will be an official launch of a fundraising campaign in March. The fund has a donor willing to match donations at $7,500. The Denton County Homeless Coalition Steering Committee will approve the Barriers Fund Overview next meeting Wednesday, February 28, 2018.

Members reviewed a Gantt chart implementation timeline for Doors for Denton County. The timeline includes dates for final program design approval, soft launch, fundraising kick-off, housing navigator hiring and full launch of DFDC. The chart shows all the work completed, needing to be completed and future work.

Workgroup members discussed overall updates for Doors for Denton County; including a review of meetings with case managers and a property managing group. The group discussed pros and cons of working with property management groups, overall the group agreed to not limit the program to just working with landlords. The group reviewed the updated Doors for Denton County Summary Framework draft; the highlights were a process map, forms, policies and parameters for risk mitigation funds and for barrier busting funds.

Members gave feedback and discussed ways to fine tune the program design. Members suggested adding more policies and ways to implement the program. The meeting ended with the announcement of wanting to approve the program at the next housing workgroup meeting.

March 19, 2018

Attendees: Alyssa Mostaffa, Christy Daniel, Courtney Cross, Daisy Martinez, Dani Shaw, Daphne Adams, Katherine Gonzales, Katie Chapman, LeMaya Woods, Taylor Cameron, Tyheshia Scott, Terry Widmer (Chair).

The workgroup met in March to approve the Doors for Denton County program framework and policies. The group discussed and approved changes made in reorganizing workgroups for the Denton County Homelessness Coalition, changes made to the Doors’ framework and next steps in implementing the program.

The changes discussed centered on the client interface with the Housing Navigator. While in the past the group argued that it would be best for the Housing Navigator to have no interface with clients directly, through research group members found that for the program to work it will not be possible to have no interface with the client. The group discussed the pros and cons of this, they came to the agreement that the Housing Navigator will have interface with clients but with clear and set boundaries with all parties involved.

The group discussed changes that still need to happen in the framework, mostly consisting of clarification of language used. The group approved the framework with the suggested edits to the framework. The group discussed concerns with only having one Housing Navigator for all the housing providers in Denton County. Backbone support assured the group that the Housing Navigator will have a lot of support from UWDC.

The workgroup discussed next steps in implementing Doors for Denton County. The plan is to have the Intern Housing Navigator work with Giving Hope Inc. to start housing people from their caseload. It was discussed that the purpose of the soft pilot is to work out any “kinks” in the program so that when the program is fully implemented, it works smoothly.

Short-term action items

Add suggested polices and forms to the program design
Intern Housing Navigator Shadow Case Managers at Giving Hope, Inc.
Meet with potential Partner Properties

Accomplishments

The Case Conferencing Committee began with introductions of group members and an overview of the Coordinated Entry Process. The group discussed how to make appropriate referrals within the HMIS and following-up on referrals with a phone call or email. The group also reviewed the prioritization standards that have been adopted by the DCHLT Data Workgroup from Texas Homeless Network’s Coordinated Entry Written Standards. These standards will be utilized regularly throughout meeting to prioritize individuals and families for available financial assistance.

For the remainder of the meeting the group members worked on identifying individuals and families that have been housed on Denton County’s Housing Priority List (HPL). The HPL is includes all individual and families that complete a VI-SPDAT/ F-VISPDAT assessment within the Coordinated Entry Process. Families are prioritized to receive assistance based on their VI-SPDAT scores and severity of service needs. At the end of the meeting the group identified 90 people that have been housed or have permanently moved out of the Denton County service area.

The group will continue to meet on a bi-weekly basis to prioritize individuals and families to receive housing assistance, coordinated wrap-around services to stabilize families to stay housed, and participate in housing focused case management training.

March 16, 2018

The Case Conferencing Committee meeting began with identifying households that have been housed since the last committee meeting. There were no housing updates to be made, but Giving Hope Rapid Re-Housing case manager is currently working with a few households to secure housing.
